

DAUGHTER IN MATHER'S SUICIDE.His Friend, Charles Fox, Requested Not to Investigate the Case.

William Mather, a native of Austria, about 35 years old, was found dead on a grave coping in Atlantic and Grove avenues, near the "Hill of Graves," in Greenwood Cemetery yesterday morning. He had shot himself in the left temple. In his pocket was a letter addressed "Mr. McCarthy, foreman of the Hill of Graves," enclosing $10 and requesting that his body when found should be removed from the eyes of curiosity. The note added that a young man, Mr. Fox, would attend to the funeral arrangements. There were also in his pockets a receipt for a registered letter and another receipt for an express package addressed to Adelbert Mather, Rondorf, Austria. The registered letter, it was learned subsequently, was addressed to Charles Fox, 18 Broadway, who is an employee of the Riverside Bridge Company, who resides in Paterson. The letter was as follows:

"NEW YORK, May 2, 1892.
MY DEAR FRIEND: You will be a little surprised on receiving this letter from me, but please provide for a simple but decent funeral of my body, which I will find near the entrance of Greenwood Cemetery, opposite the Prospect Park and Coney Island depot. Excuse me good friend, I have charged you with a task which I do not like to give you here in this country, and besides I trust in your kindness and humanity. I was going to accept an engagement in the West, but had to change my mind."

"You will not investigate the cause of my death, as it is in connection with some event which I do not now know. Charlton, this article being published in the New York paper, and announce my death to my relatives, whose address I give below, as I want them to have every opportunity to do so, and I wish you to do the same. I wish you more luck in this beautiful world than was destined for me. Say my farewell once more to the friends I have left, and bid them a fond adieu to Mr. Mather."

Mr. Fox said yesterday: "Mr. Mather was in the employ of the Riverside Bridge Company in Paterson, and had been there a year. He came from Austria. He was a very quiet man and was much liked in Paterson, where he went into society to some extent. He spoke English, German, French, Italian, Spanish, and English. He once told me he was sick of his native country, which he had served eight years in the Army. He seemed to be going to New York at a week's notice. I have no idea what drove him to suicide."

BROUGHT A BABY TO COURT.But There's Another on Handell's Island Which It Has to Do with the Case.

Dr. Henry Rosner, who is accused of having an infant on the steps of St. Paul's Eighty-third Street on the night of April 20, presented himself in the Harlem Court yesterday for examination.

The Doctor had a baby in court which he said was the only infant he had in his possession on the date of the alleged abortion.

This baby was brought to court by Mrs. Louise Hoffman who has charge of it. The doctor had left the baby in charge of Lizzie Cronin, the maid of the Doctor's residence at 333 East Eighty-third street, for several days.

Mrs. Cronin, who was in court, looked at the baby and said she had never seen such a baby taken charge of by the doctor. That baby she had seen on Handell's Island.

The Doctor, who is a medical man of good standing, said he had given up the practice of medicine and had left the doctor's house.

The case was adjourned until Friday, so that the Doctor's Island baby may be taken to court.

Annie Treasdale, who had the doctor arrested because she believed her son, who was staying in the hospital, had been given up for adoption, has been thoroughly reentered by her. She says the baby in charge of Mrs. Cronin is the son of the Doctor.

She said the child is the result of a secret marriage between the doctor and a woman whom Annie Treasdale, the Doctor's housekeeper, said he had left.
